The recognition of overseas student's status is notarized by the office handling overseas Chinese affairs.
【note 3】	The term "reside overseas continuously" means that an international student has stayed in Taiwan for no more than a total of 120 days in each calendar year. However, time that a person has spent in Taiwan is not subject to this restriction and it is not counted when calculating how long they were in Taiwan in a particular year if the person has documentary proof that they: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 Attended an overseas youth training course organized by the Overseas Compatriot Affairs Council or a technical professional training program accredited by the Ministry of Education; 2 spent a total period of less than two years undertaking Chinese language classes at a Chinese language center at a university or tertiary college which has Ministry of Education approval to recruit students overseas; 3 spent a total period of less than two years in Taiwan as an exchange student; or 4 spent a total period of less than two years undertaking an internship that they came to Taiwan to undertake with the approval of the designated central competent authority. ◆The periods of six years shall be calculated using the starting date of the semester (September 1, 2019) as the end date of the period. ◆The term "overseas" used refers to countries or regions other than the

III. General Requirements for Admission

- A. Applicants who have graduated from a high school, college or university recognized by the Ministry of Education - Taiwan can apply for admissions (Please refer to the website https://www.fsedu.moe.gov.tw/home_Eng.aspx).
1. Applicants with a high school diploma are eligible to apply for undergraduate studies.
 2. Applicants with a bachelor's degree or equivalent qualifications to that of our academic degree system are eligible to apply for Master's programs.
 3. Applicants with a Master's degree or equivalent qualifications to that of our academic degree system are eligible to apply for PhD programs.
- B. Applicants from foreign countries, Hong Kong, and Macao whose graduating year is equivalent to the second year of domestic senior high schools and whose graduating schools are comparable in level and nature to domestic senior high schools are considered as having a level of education adequate for registering for the entrance examination for the undergraduate studies. According to the university charter, applicants with this education background require at least an additional 12 general education credits in 4 fields of general education courses for graduation. These credits could not be included in the graduate credits.
- C. International students applying for schools in Taiwan shall be limited to ONE application only. Upon completion of the course of study, at a school in Taiwan, to which an international student has applied, the student's admission to another school's academic level shall be handled in a manner identical to the admission procedures for local students. An exception is that an application for a master's degree or higher levels of graduate studies can be processed under the procedures of each individual school.

IV. For information regarding academic departments, admission quotas, the content of entrance examinations, and introduction to specific academic departments refer to the following tables on Pages 18-39.

V. Admission quota:

Admissions Program	International Student Quota
Bachelor's Program	188
Master's Program	18
Ph.D. Program	4

VI. Application Procedure

- A. Applicants must fill the online Google Form.
- B. Applicants must provide the following documents and email to emily1033@mail.cjcu.edu.tw before application due date. Late, ineligible or incomplete applications will not be processed:
1. 2-inch photo with white background (JPG file).

2. The completed application form.
3. Verification of nationality or copy of valid passport. Certificate of Nationality Renouncement of Republic of China (if applicable): Required for applicants who once held nationality of the Republic of China. Applicants must have renounced their nationality for at least 8 years from the date of the certificate to the first day of Fall Semester 2021 or Spring Semester 2022.
4. Certification of highest-level diploma and a transcript of academic study. Please refer to the following Academic Credential Verification and Accreditation Methods (For documents in languages other than Chinese or English, a Chinese or English translation should be attached; original documents are required upon registration.)
 - (1) Academic credentials from The PRC: The Regulations Governing Accreditation of institutes in the PRC shall apply.
 - (2) Academic credentials from Hong Kong or Macao: Academic Credential Verification and Accreditation Methods adopted in Hong Kong and Macao shall apply.
 - (3) Academic credentials from other areas:
 - (a) Academic credentials earned at overseas Taiwan schools or Taiwan schools in the PRC shall be regarded as the same as earned in domestic schools of equivalent levels.
 - (b) Academic credentials referred to in the preceding two items shall be subject to the Regulations Regarding the Assessment and Recognition of Foreign Academic Credentials for Institutions of Higher Education. However, academic credentials earned from institutes or branches established in The PRC by overseas schools shall require public notarization in the PRC and be verified and examined by an institute established or appointed by, or through a private agency commissioned by Taiwan's Executive Yuan.
5. An official bank statement (in Chinese or English) that indicates an account balance of more than NT$150,000 (US$5,000). The statement has to be issued by a financial institution and cannot be older than 3 months at the time of application. If the certificate is not in the name of the applicant himself/herself, a signed sponsorship letter (in Chinese or English) is required. In this sponsorship letter, the relationship between the sponsor and the applicant has to be stated and the support of the applicant's expenses for the duration of the applicants studies in Taiwan has to be guaranteed. Full scholarship recipients can provide scholarship certificate instead (scholarship application form not accepted).
6. An autobiography and study plan, in either Chinese or English.
7. Two letters of recommendation.
8. Chang Jung Christian University Privacy Statement.
9. Other documents specified by the department or institute to which the student is applying.

- ※ The documents above need to be uploaded successfully and qualified after review in order to be passed to the departments for final assessment.
- ※ The department will review the application and admissions through document review and interview. [Please do provide contact information ie. LINE, Whats App and etc. for interview]
- ※ Remarks: Students will have their acceptance revoked if they are found to not have met entrance requirements or to have used documents that are forged, altered, or otherwise fraudulent. If they have already been accepted for admission, they will be expelled and no academic credit will be granted for any studies completed. If they have already graduated, their certificate of graduation will be revoked and the university will report the cancellation of the degree.

Foreign students who have earned a bachelor's degree or higher in Taiwan and are applying to a master's degree program or higher may use diplomas and transcripts from Taiwan rather than the documents listed in item two above.

The university that reviews the application documents without verification by overseas consulates, representative offices, agencies of the country or other bodies authorized by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (hereinafter referred to as overseas agencies) or institutes established or appointed by, or a private agency commissioned by the Executive Yuan as prescribed in subparagraphs two of the preceding paragraph may request verification by an overseas agency. If the said documents have been verified, the university may request examination of the documents.

VII. Admission Review: Each application will be reviewed by and according to each department.

VIII. General Information

- A. Issues involving course arrangement and transfer of credits will be handled according to university regulations and policies.
- B. Tuition and fees are set according to the current fee schedule posted on the Accounting Office website (<http://cjcu.tw/r/XSdPFt>).
- C. The university offers Chinese language courses to assist foreign students in their studies.
- D. The university has a special unit to help students adjust to university life (both in academic studies and daily life).
- E. After acceptance, exemption of credits is handled according to the university's Credit Exemption regulations. Students who lack sufficient credits cannot graduate until they make up the credits; no exceptions will be made.
- F. Foreign students can apply for scholarships from the Ministry of Education. For conditions and scholarship details, students should refer to the Ministry of Education guidelines: (<http://tafs.mofa.gov.tw/Default.aspx?loc=en>)
- G. If there are any discrepancies between the Chinese and English versions of this document, the Chinese version shall prevail.
- H. Please visit our website (<http://www.cjcu.edu.tw/en/>) for information about our university and its departments.

IX. CJCUC Overseas Students Scholarship

- A. International students newly enrolled in the university (excepts for students who enroll English-taught classes, courses and departments offered after the 109 academic year) will receive a fixed subsidy of NT $ 35,000 in the first semester, which will be deducted from the total tuition and fees for the current period. More information please refer to http://dweb.cjcu.edu.tw/overseas_student/article/4439. (Students can apply for scholarship only after receiving the admission notice.)
- B. At the beginning of the second semester, those foreign students can apply for overseas student scholarship (those who meet the renewal conditions shall receive NT$ 25,000 per semester per person).
- C. If a funding recipient withdraws from the University, his or her funding eligibility will be revoked. He or she will also be required to return all amounts of money received previously.

X. Acceptance

A. Admission:

The school's admission committee will release the results for each department; not all places need to be filled. When the number of qualified candidates seeking admission is insufficient according to the standard of a department or program, the number of accepted students can be less than the intended recruitment number. If the number of qualified candidates exceeds the designated recruitment number, a waiting list of additional candidates will be prepared. No additional candidates will be named in the opposite case. Only when the number of qualified candidates seeking admissions is insufficient will additional candidates be invited to register. Registration of additional candidates will be conducted by order to score obtained in the application process.

- B. Notices of acceptance and enrollment questionnaire will be sent to the admitted candidates by registered express mail and email.

*Please ensure that you provide correct mailing address for sending the Acceptance letter. Applicants must assume full responsibility of the consequences if the Acceptance letter is undeliverable due to a provision of incorrect information.

- C. Acceptance Letter does not guarantee the issuance a visa. Visa must be granted by the Bureau of Consular Affairs or Overseas Missions of the Republic of China.
- D. According to regulations of the Centers for Disease, ROC(Taiwan), since January 2009 those who apply for a resident visa to stay in Taiwan have to submit a medical report showing immunity to measles and rubella or proof of vaccination against measles and rubella. Please refer to the BOCA website (Bureau of Consular Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, ROC (Taiwan)): <http://www.boca.gov.tw> for details.

XI. Registration

- A. All admitted students must reply to accept the offer, complete the new student survey before due date. The admission will be given to applicants on the waiting list if admitted students fail to reply before due date.

- B. Students with CJCUC Letter of Acceptance must submit the following documents upon registration on semester start date:
- The Highest-Level diploma and transcript in Chinese or English authenticated by the R.O.C. Embassies, Consulate Offices, and Missions abroad or by other Notary Institutes authorized by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, R.O.C in the country of the issuing university. (These documents will be returned).
 - Students graduated from a Taiwanese university must submit diploma and transcripts in Chinese and they are not required for further authentication.
 - All students are required to provide proof of personal health insurance or proof of National Health Insurance (NHI). (At the time of registration a new international student shall present proof of a medical and injury insurance policy which is valid for a least 6 months from the date the student enters Taiwan). Please be aware that foreign personal health insurance certificate must be authenticated by the R.O.C. Embassy, Consulate Office, or Taipei Economic & Culture Office in the country which the student resides.
 - Departments and institutes that accept students who lack strong proficiency in Chinese or the ability to understand Chinese-taught classes require these students to take Mandarin courses at the University.
 - All students are required to acquire “Alien Resident Certificate” (ARC) and submit a copy (both side) to the Office of Admissions before October 1st, 2020 (for Fall Semester).
- C. Academic year: August 1st, 2021~July 31st 2022. Fall Semester: Mid-September ~ Mid-January ; Spring Semester: Mid-February ~ Mid-June.
- D. All students should complete registration accordingly. Failure to complete registration procedure is regarded as forfeiting admitted status.
- E. Students who complete five-year high school must take extra credits and subject in accordance with respective department graduation requirements.

※Note:

If the submitted documents be found forged, fraudulent or altered, etc., students' admitted status will be revoked; no degree certificate will be given.
